

OPEN CALL FOR SITE NORDIC RESIDENCY 2020-2021

Application deadline: June 30th 2020

SITE Nordic Residency offers residency periods for 2 artists or collectives from the Nordic / Baltic Region in Farsta, Stockholm, Sweden. The residency focuses specifically on artists and collectives working in the contemporary dance and performance field, who research new formats and methods in interaction with audience and local community. SITE Nordic Residency provides the artists/groups 3-4 weeks of working space with full-on support. The two artists/groups will have an overlapping working period at SITE to meet and share their practices, in a format according to the artists/groups wishes.

The residency includes:

- Free rehearsal studios and office spaces.
- Monetary production support of 10 000 EUR per group.
- Travel costs, accommodation and per-diems for a maximum of 5 persons per group.
- Facilitation of public showings, invited audience or workshop participants according to the groups wishes.
- Staff support for production and distribution advice, communication network.

About us:

SITE is a production space for contemporary performing arts, focusing on dance.

Recently relocated to new premises in Farsta, outside Stockholm, we established Konstverket, a 3700 sqm interdisciplinary production house for Art.

SITE works with professional emerging artists and develops projects that strengthen the field, as well as provide services such as studio, office, residencies and free guidance for young or developing performing artists to increase their skills in artistic production and management.

Application:

Describe your work/project and how you wish to use the time at SITE, maximum 1 A4 page.

Describe the constitution of your group and/or the co-workers you wish to invite, maximum 1 A4 page.

Send your application with CV the latest June 30th 2020 by e-mail to:
